THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY,
TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese culture, by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries on China and Japan,' has reached its fourteenth volume. The Review discusses those topics which are 'up-to-date' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new department has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that in this direction the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally useful.

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works for Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued, and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

The Correspondents' column also affords further and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various topics.

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst in which a high degree of Chinese scholarship is judiciously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Edel, Bretschneider, and Hirth, Professor Legge, and Messrs. Balfour, Wattles, Sleight, Phillips, MacIntyre, Gros, Fisher, Kocher, Parker, Playfair, Giles, Eaton, and Taylor.—All well-known names, indicative of sound scholar ship and thorough mastery of their subjects.

The Subscription is fixed at $5.50 per annum, postage included—payable in advance.

Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to. Address: 'Manager, China Mail Office.'

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.
'All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review.'—Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.).

'The China Review  has an excellent table of contents.'—Cathartic News.

'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to students in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourably if not advantageously comparison, with preceding numbers.'—Cathartic Empire.

'This number contains several articles of interest and value.'—China Herald.

'The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. The valuable contribution by Dr. Frischie, on "The Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1847 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Borneo," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of the Chinese Classic of "Man-Hua," and of which the Review is a usual very interesting.'—North-China Daily News.

'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronize.'

'The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr. Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr. E. H.
Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr. F. B. Balfour continues a paper of some length entitled "The Empire of China," which will be read with interest by students of Chinese history.

A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, some of which are of Chinese origin, and of which the Review is a usual very interesting.'—North-China Daily News.
